ELOPEMENT PACKAGES

Your day.
Your way.

Together, we'll plan your day and build a shot list to capture every important moment.

SO, YOU'VE DECIDED TO ELOPE.

As someone who also chose to elope, I truly could not recommend it more. The day was ours: We got to sleep in, I spent half the day cozy in bloomers, and I remember every bit of it. Aside from our mamas and their plus-ones, it was just us, and a film photographer friend we hired to document the exchanging of our vows.

In this world where choices are abundant, who you select to capture the moments of your special day is arguably the most important decision in the whole planning process.

A LI'L BIT ABOUT US

LI'L BIT OF EVERYTHING | NOT FOR EVERYONE

While established on paper only in November of 2021, BARE BONEZ COLLECTIVE has effectively been in operation for over a decade.

I first picked up a camera at the age of 15 and used it to document shows, people, and everyday life. After dropping out of college in 2015, I found myself in front of the camera for several years – which I believe provided me with invaluable insight for when I'd pick the camera back up in 2019, this time teaching myself to shoot film as well.

DIGITAL VS. FILM

BAREBONEZ COLLECTIVE

THE VISION

Together, we're going to tell your love story AND create art at the same time.

Whether digital, film, or a combination of the two, I'll document your day – from the biggie moments to the raw in-betweens, every bit of it is important.

THE PROMISE

Authentic. Fun. A little different. You.

I stand on our mantra: li'l bit of everything, not for everyone. My photo approach and style are for those wanting something unique – timeless yet nostalgic, personal, and fun.

Reach out and let's see if we're a match!

DON'T TAKE MY WORD FOR IT–

"Kait was the most calming presence to have on not only one, but two of our biggest days! Not only is she a wonderful photographer, but she is truly a phenomenal person. She made us feel so comfortable, and helped us to get the most beautiful photos possible. Neither of us are natural posers, but with her guidance we felt so confident in ourselves. Her attention to detail and creativity are unmatched!! We are so thankful she gave us photos we can cherish and look back on for a lifetime. <3"
